

Chief of Police

The Town of Pamplico is seeking a well-qualified individual of the highest integrity to become its new Police Chief. The ideal candidate will be an experienced team player who is able to provide leadership and management to the Police Department and to interact effectively with an active and involved citizenry.

Requirements include at least ten years experience in law enforcement with five or more years of service in a supervisory capacity. Significant experience and strong skills in crime prevention and reduction, community outreach/community policing, budgeting, teambuilding and technology as it relates to policing. Self-assured as a leader with ability to inspire, motivate, guide, direct and challenge department staff to achieve organizational goals. Excellent written and verbal communication skills. Candidates must possess interpersonal skills which will allow them to build and maintain effective working relationships with Town staff and officials, subordinate officers and employees, and other law enforcement agencies. Salary range $45,000-50,000 annually dependent upon qualifications and experience. Equal Opportunity Employer.

Must have certification as a law enforcement officer in South Carolina and possess a valid SC driver's license. A commitment to reside in Pamplico, or in Florence County in close proximity to the Town limits is required. Submit letter of application, detailed résumé with salary history and work related references to Edwin P. Rogers, Town Administrator, P.O. Box 296, Pamplico, SC 29583 or e-mail to admin@pamplico.org.
